Presidential Message
By Ines Fraenkel

The 32nd annual IPMAAC Conference, Building Bridges: Recruitment, Assessment and Selection, was a huge success! Thank you to all who attended and who participated in every capacity. Our Oakland conference was attended by well over 200 people this year.

A special note of gratitude to IPMA-HR staff, Carrie Hoover, Jessica Allen, and Angie Silas, who took care of all our needs and who kept the conference running smoothly. Many thanks also to our vendors and sponsors for their generous participation and contributions.

Thank you to our Program Committee Co-Chairs, Bryan Baldwin and Carl Swander, for coordinating such a varied and rich program. They put together an excellent array of pre-conference workshops and conference presentations which we hope have enhanced and refined your knowledge and skills. The keynote speakers, David Campbell, Neal Schmitt, Bob Guion, and Dick Jeanneret, were outstanding. Dr. Campbell's unforgettable disrobing act was particularly entertaining!

In addition to the sharing and learning opportunities afforded by formal sessions, people met old friends and made new ones. The Monday night Sunset Bay Cruise provided an especially fun opportunity for networking. The evening was perfect. The weather was made to order as were the views from the water of San Francisco, the Bay and Golden Gate Bridges, Alcatraz Island, the Oakland Estuary, and the East Bay in general. A big thank you to Bruce Topp, from the City and County of San Francisco and photographer extraordinaire, for capturing our images that evening. Photos will be posted directly on our website in the very near future, but in the meantime, they can be viewed from this Picasa Web album: http://picasaweb.google.com/ivfraenkel/IPMAACBayCruiseJune2008?authkey=ChnVDG8eRfE.

Thank you again for attending this year's conference. I enjoyed addressing you in both formal sessions and in the Presidential Suite. I trust and hope that those who attended were invigorated and recharged, that you left with new ideas and information, as well as with an expanded network of resources. I trust that your conference experience was a rewarding one, both professionally and personally.

Surveys
As you know, a membership survey was made available to IPMAAC members as well as to ListServe and ACN readers prior to the conference. The results were reported at the conference during the business meeting. More detailed results may be accessed by following the link provided on our website: www.ipmaac.org.

A post-conference survey was sent out to those who attended the 2008 conference. Thank you to all who participated and provided useful feedback. Your input will be most useful in planning our conference in 2009 and in years to come. The survey link for viewing detailed results will be posted on our website in the near future.
Competition Rules
Papers must be theses, dissertations, or other student papers that describe original research conducted by the author while a student. Papers submitted must have been written within two years of the entry deadline, may not have been previously submitted to this competition, and must have been written as a student. Papers should address either substantive or methodological issues in areas such as the following:

- Personnel Selection
- Employment Tests
- Job Analysis
- Employee Performance Evaluation
- Assessment of Productivity or Organizational Effectiveness
- Assessment of Training Outcomes
- Other Related Topics

Deadline
All manuscripts for the 2008-2009 competition must be e-mailed no later than March 16, 2009 to:

Dr. Lee Friedman
SpecTal
13481 Falcon View Court
Bristow, VA 20136
Tel (571) 331-1388
Email: leefriedman1406@yahoo.com

Procedure for Submission
A. The following must be included in each entry in order to be accepted:

1. A hard copy of a completed cover sheet mailed to Dr. Friedman’s work address (see following page)
2. An electronic version (soft copy) of the paper e-mailed to Dr. Friedman.

B. Submissions are not to exceed 20 double-spaced pages of text (not including references or tables.) All papers should include a description of each of the following:

1. Research Problem
2. Methodology
   a. Research Problem
   b. Sampling
   c. Instruments Used
3. Data Analysis
4. Findings/Conclusions

Judging of Entries
The papers will be reviewed anonymously by a panel of academicians and practitioners. Papers will be judged on the contribution to the field of personnel assessment, including an evaluation of the scientific merit as well as the degree to which the research addresses issues of practical importance to the practice of personnel assessment.
